Hello Leo:

Thank you for the update.

I will be back in the office toward the end of this week and will let you know of my availability for the week of August 17. I am not in the office during the next few days as I am taking personal time off.

Thank you for your courtesies.

Sincerely,
Carmen

Carmen,

The industrial cleaning of the former Westinghouse Compton facility is essentially complete. We suggest a conference call for the week of August 17, 2015 to review the data and discuss the path forward. Please let me know your interest and availability that week, and I will make the arrangements for the call. Thanks.
